

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Study the consonant digraphs review. Read each clue carefully. Find an object that matches each clue. Add the object into your bucket and write the name of the object on the line. Make sure to spell the name of the object correctly and have fun!

Consonant Digraphs Review:

When 2 consonants come together to make one unique sound. e.g. sh, th, ch, ph, wh,

Clue #1:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /sh/ with one syllable.

The Object

Clue #2:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /th/ with one syllable.

The Object

Clue #3:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /ch/ with one syllable.

The Object

Clue #4:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /ph/.

The Object

Clue #5:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /wh/.

The Object

Clue #6:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /kn/.

The Object

Clue #7:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /ng/.

The Object

Clue #8:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /qu/.

The Object

Clue #9:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /gh/.

The Object

Clue #10:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /sh/ with two syllables.

The Object

Clue #11:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /th/ with two syllables.

The Object

Clue #12:

An object with the consonant digraph pattern /ch/ with two syllables.

The Object