Dance Party: Set a timer for 15 minutes. Grab your family and crank up some tunes. Have the BEST dance party you have ever had!	Family Tree: Musical instruments have families too! With a parent, research which instruments belong to the following families: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• String Family</li><li>• Percussion Family</li><li>• Woodwind Family</li><li>• Brass Family</li></ul>	I've Got Rhythm: Find some bowls and spoons from your kitchen. Use them like a drum to keep a steady beat to your favorite song.
Change the words Challenge: Row, row, row your boat Gently down the stream Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily Life is but a dream. How can you change the words? What new song could you make? What nouns, verbs and adverbs will you use?	Learn a Classic: Even if sports aren't your thing, it is good to learn the lyrics to, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game." Have someone teach you the tune and the words. Hey, you might be on a trivia show one day and this could be the winning answer. 😊	The Hokey Pokey: Sing and dance the Hokey Pokey with your family. Maybe you can Facetime? See how many family members you can get to Hokey Pokey with you.
Loud and Quiet: In music it is important to know the difference between loud and quiet. Learn the song John Jacob Jingleheimer Schmidt to help you practice the difference between loud and quiet.	Illustrate a Song: Some songs tell a story. Sing: The Eensy, Weensy Spider. Think about the story of the spider. Draw a picture to illustrate this story/song.	Scott Joplin: Scott Joplin was an African-American composer and pianist. He was dubbed the King of Ragtime.
