

Writing U5W3 Instructions

Use the graphic organizer to plan your writing. Use ideas from the stories you read this week. When you are done with your final draft, have your parent take a picture of it and send it to me on Dojo, through email, or by text message.

Red sentence should start with a 2 finger space (indent) and should be:
Many people are heroes.

Orange sentence should start with: One person I think is a hero is _____.
(example: a firefighter, my grandpa, Cesar Chavez)

Yellow sentence should be a detail about that (orange) person: what they do/did, how they help (example: save/help people in danger, served in the military, stood up for people's rights)

Green sentence should start on a new line with a 2 finger space (indent) and start with: Another person I think is a hero is _____.

Blue sentence should be a detail about that (green) person.

Purple sentence should be a feeling word sentence. (example: I love heroes. Heroes are important. I hope to be a hero someday.)

Finished Example:

Many people are heroes. One person I think is a hero is my dad. He was an airplane mechanic during the Vietnam War.

Another person I think is a hero is Martin Luther King Jr. He worked to give equal rights to all Americans. I love all the different heroes in my life!
